

FRANZ SARO CACAYAN

WEB DEVELOPER

PROFILE

Passionate about crafting dynamic and user-friendly web experiences, I am a skilled web developer with 2+ years of experience in the field. My expertise lies in front-end and back-end development, with a strong proficiency in HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, and the framework React.js

On the front-end, I excel at translating design concepts into polished and responsive web interfaces. I strive to create seamless user experiences that captivate and engage. On the back-end, I am knowledgeable in languages Python and PHP as well as knowledge on databases like MySQL.

In addition, I am a collaborative team player and I excel with communicating /working with people to come up with solutions. I also thrive in taking challenges such as troubleshooting bugs to optimizing code.
